Interests: Surfing... the web for fun sites; ask me! I know a bunch.

Biography / Memorable Life Experiences: Since high school, and subsequently earning an associates degree at Mesa (What? You doubted me?), it's been work, pay taxes, keep up with life. Had some fun along the way (could never run for public office!). Blessed with 2 wonderful kids..who are amazed to find out I knew more than they thought! Work nickname is "General Mills". There 'might' be a reason for this. My bowling handicap is so high, I'm incapacitated and wasn't invited back for the winter league, even though my team won! Fave: Oldest friends, HS & college. Regret: allowing a job to become part of my identity, and I'm out of sp

Interests: Tennis (see bio); gardening (see bio); hiking; biking;

Biography / Memorable Life Experiences: Armed with a teensy resume, a BA in Mass Media and a ficus tree, I drove to Hollywood to work in tv. The resume and ficus slowly grew and 34 years later, looking a bit raggedy and sun-damaged, I'm still here and the tree, lush and leafy, is tucked happily into a shady corner of my garden. My lovely marriage can be traced, surprisingly, to Franklin pool. Teaching there led me to a second career in fitness which led me to many opportunities to work with professional athletes. One athlete wanted to talk about more than cross-training. We're still talking...well I'm talking, he's mostly nodding.

Interests: sports, travel, and bellydancing

Biography / Memorable Life Experiences: Two memorable high school experiences: Going for lunchtime joy rides up and down the hills of two lane County Line Road (before they eliminated most of the hills). And getting a moving violation ticket on E. Colfax the day after I got my driver's license...one of my wonderful English teachers, who shall remain nameless, drove me downtown Denver after school, AND paid for my ticket!!! He retired quite a few years ago and I finally paid him back at his retirement party...with interest. A teacher would never do that for a student these days without fear of losing his job! Thank you Mr. _____

Family: No children or grandchildren. Planned it that way and very happy about it.

Interests: Collecting, Snow Skiing , Fishing, Traveling

Biography / Memorable Life Experiences: Dear Classmates: I find it very hard to believe it has been over 40 years since that warm May night at the DU auditorium in 1972 when we were scattered to the winds of fate and destiny. I totally enjoyed going to AHS and the late 1960s and early 1970s in Colorado was certainly one of "the" places to be. How fortunate we were back then! Life is interesting in that you never know what is around the next corner. Since the 1992 reunion, I have to say it has been an interesting ride for me. I lived in Dallas, Boise, Los Gatos and South Korea for seven years before returning to live in my home state of Michigan in 2010. I helped build a family

Occupation: Asst Director, Dev Disabilities Res Ctr

Family: 3 Daughters-Susan, Jessica, Stefanie + large extended, loving family

Interests: Community organizing (I think it's an honorable activity), quilting, family fun

Biography / Memorable Life Experiences: Apparently, my memory's not what it used to be. The big family joke is that I don't remember the '80s-raising my three daughters was just too intense! I'm looking forward to reconnecting with old friends at the Reunion. It always feels just like yesterday when we get together. Real bio facts-still live in Littleton area (now Centennial) where we raised my family, still working at DDRC in Jeffco after 30 years managing employment services for adults with developmental disabilities. Served on Littleton School Board for 8 years. And oh yes, my sister, Kathie will be joining us at the Reunion.

Family: Single with three boys, all grown and gone.

Interests: I work for an airline so I love to travel. I am also a ballroom/swing dancer.

Biography / Memorable Life Experiences: I attended Arapahoe my Sophomore and half of my Junior years then we moved to Minneapolis. One winter there and we were ready to move back to Colorado! I came back before my family, two months before graduation, and stayed with my best friend, just so I could graduate at Arapahoe. I married my high school sweetheart, but was divorced a year later. I then joined the Army so I could get the GI Bill and go to college. I lived in Seattle and earned a Bachelor's degree in Business. I lived in Indiana and recently moved to Michigan. My favorite activity is going to singles dances.

Occupation: portfolio manager, Oppenhiemer & Co

Family: My lovely wife Lisa and precariously precocious daughter Candace

Interests: enjoy many friends and an active social life, time in the mountains, motorcycles

Biography / Memorable Life Experiences: Rather ill-prepared for college, had the edge of an egg, that unfortunately had to change. Found a calling in finance, have enjoyed a carrier in that endeavor for > 30 years. Enjoy many friends, many from back in the 'old days' that I stay in touch with. Our family enjoys time in the mountains at our cabin near Estes Park, traveling to various destinations (including road trips), and our beloved dogs over the years (Joe, Elliott, Jake, Alfred). The yearnings of youth have given way to the subtle contentment of, yes, middle age, if indeed we are still in the middle of things! Best to all. Ralph

Biography / Memorable Life Experiences: Varsity soccer team in 10th grade - no school bus to away games, so I rode with Sr. goalie Dave Buffington to all games. But first we stopped at the Tenneco at Broadway and Ridge Road for a couple quarts of Coors and a fresh pack Marlboro Reds. Always arrived at typing class early to hunt for one of the two typewriters that didn't have blank keys - hated looking at the home row chart to type. Have enjoyed plenty of life long friendships and have had an interesting career path. For me, high school friendships/events were so important to helping develop my character.
